

Fairfield Family Obituary Listings

Life is a journey to a faraway world , we learn there, we teach there and experience joy.

But also the pain when we loose one so dear. It was not intended that forever we stay .

Life's journey we learned to share with family and with friends, with our loved ones so we miss them.

But as life goes on each of us will return to our home and be with our friends and those we love, united again!

So take comfort that God is always so near and blessed are all His children so dear!

Renate A. Hernandez!
